The Table Bay

Between Robben Island and Table Mountain you'll discover the famed Table Bay Hotel. During the day the cool Atlantic breeze softens the heat of Cape Town, Africa's mother city. Cosmopolitan, gracious and relaxed, The Table Bay is the sum of all that is good about its home town. At dusk the hum of V&A Waterfront's restaurants, bars and clubs beckon you from your room.

The Table Bay has a total of 329 rooms which include single, double and luxury suites. The inviting rooms represent the epitome of luxury and comfort. The Table Bay is a sanctuary for people who enjoy good food and wine. Whether you're enjoying authentic South African cuisine by acclaimed chefs, informal 'al fresco' meals or high tea with freshly baked scones, cream and preserves, The Table Bay never fails to delight.

The Royal
LIVINGSTONE
VICTORIA FALLS ZAMBIA

Translated, "The Smoke that Thunders" is the local name for the Victoria Falls. Its fine spray hangs like a cloud across the bushveld, pushing rainbows hundreds of feet into the air. On the forested banks of the great Zambezi River, upstream of the mighty cataract where it thunders into the Batoka Gorge, lies The Royal Livingstone. In its cool lounges and under shaded verandas, you will experience the elegance and luxury of an earlier, more courteous age. The Royal Livingstone Hotel comprises 173 spacious en-suite guestrooms, each with its own private veranda, stretched along the river bank.

The food served in the restaurants of the Royal Livingstone is inspired by the mixed influences of Africa and the results are a culinary exploration garnered from the many different cultures.
